

“It’s not what you do, but how you do it. We look at your entire financial picture, whether you are an individual, a large family owned business, or a non-profit. We offer the entire spectrum of tax compliance services, business advisory, and much more.”

Jerald Kaiser, CPA/PFS

Senior Principal

Jerry Kaiser, a senior principal in the Tax Group at GHP Horwath, has more than 30 years of tax experience in dealing with mid-level and entrepreneurial firms and large closely held businesses with a special emphasis in real estate, corporate tax, business succession planning, and estate and trust. He also handles corporate accounting, commercial auditing and accounting services, including the design and implementation of strategic business plans, and cost accounting and control systems. As a Personal Financial Specialist (PFS) and Certified Public Accountant (CPA) registered in the state of Colorado, Jerry has extensive experience in income and estate taxation, personal and business financial planning, tax planning, and general business consulting for a wide range of business entities. Over the years, he has worked extensively on business and tax issues with successful family owned businesses, partnerships and S Corporations in industries such as real estate, professional services, specialty/retail sales, wholesale distribution, and more.

Jerry has worked at GHP Horwath since 1990, and before that was a principal at Laventhol & Horwath, a predecessor firm to GHP Horwath. He began his career in the tax department at Stark Hochstadt Kark & Co. He has a B.S. in Accounting from the University of Denver.
